

CHILDREN'S WORKSHOP

ORIGAMI: FOLD ME A STORY

STORY TIME AND ORIGAMI WORKSHOP WITH MIDORI FURZE

18 JUNE 2016

THE JAPAN FOUNDATION, SYDNEY

LEVEL 4 (ACCESS VIA LIFT) CENTRAL PARK, 28 BROADWAY CHIPPENDALE NSW 2008

FREE ADMISSION

Introducing our first children's workshop, where story time meets origami! The workshop starts with a fun and interactive reading of a classic Japanese children's story. After this, the kids will learn how to fold some of their favourite characters from the book, with help from professional origami artist Midori Furze. The workshop will be conducted in English.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Midori Furze is a Japanese-born Sydney-based contemporary artist who often works with event management agencies to design and produce unique origami products. She has run many innovative community art events, such as "Fold with Love - 1000 paper cranes", for the Sydney Children's Hospital and origami workshops at the Art Gallery of NSW. Her work reflects her Japanese background, having studied Japanese calligraphy, music, literature and visual art since childhood.
